

The State of Indiana has an excellent "Do Not Call List" Program that really works and should not be changed. Banks do not need to be exempt from the Program. Postal mailings and e-mails work fine if a bank wants to contact, sale services, etc. When I have a need for banking services, I will call them and they should have staff available to service my requests. Do not all banks to call me.